```
C * < main.py
                                                Run
                                                                                                      Clec
                                                           Output
       1 N = 4
                                                          Q . . .
P
       2 - board = [
                                                          . . Q .
             [1, 0, 0, 0],
[0, 0, 1, 0],
                                                          . Q . .
       4
             [0, 1, 0, 0].
[0, 0, 0, 1].
                                                          === Code Execution Successful ===
5
4
       9 for row in board:
      10 print( .join( Q if x else for x in 0
               row))
0
0
JS
```